LONDON, CITY OF: Under the Reorganization Scheme the two Rural Deaneries of East and West City are united into the one Rural Deanery of the City. The Guild Churches show no population figures because they have no territorial jurisdiction. Incomes of all City benefices under the Scheme, whether Parish or Guild Churches, are £750 (minimum) plus House Allowance of £250, with Fees, Easter Offerings, and voluntary payments in addition. This is subject to the rights of existing incumbents whose benefice incomes at the present are above this figure.

Watts & Company

LIMITED

For over 80 years we have been concerned with providing articles of all kinds which we have designed and made to suit the particular needs of different churches.

We have shown that, rather than proving an extravagance, such individual attention has often made for a decrease in expenditure at the same time as providing more satisfactory results.

SUCCESSION OF ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS

Sources—Bp Dowden's The Bishops of Scotland (Glasgow 1912), for all the sees up to the Reformation, and for Aberdeen and Moray to the present time.

For bishops after the Reformation (and for a few of the earliest ones before Queen Margaret)—Grub, Ecclesiastical History of Scotland (Edinburgh 1861, 4 vols.) and Bp. Keith and Bp Russel, Scottish Bishops (2nd ed. Edinburgh 1824).

Scottish episcopal elections became subject immediately to Roman confirmation in 1192. The subordination of the Scottish Church to York became less direct in 1165, and its independence was recognized in a bill of Celestine III in 1192. St. Andrews was raised to metropolitan rank on 17 August 1472 and the Archbishop became primate of all Scotland with the same legative rights as the archbishop of Canterbury on 27 March 1487.

The dates in the margin are those of the consecration or translation to the particular see of the bishops named ; or in the case of bishops elect, who are not known to have been consecrated, they are those of the election ; or in the case of titular bishops, of the date of their appointment.

The date of the death has been given where there was a long interregnum, or where there is dislocation (as at the Reformation and at the Revolution), or for some special reason to make the history intelligible.

The extra information in the list of College Bishops is given for the reason just stated.

INDEX OF INCUMBENCIES AND MISSION CHARGES

In the Scottish Church all whose names appear in the fourth column are, with the exception noted immediately below, "Rectors", that is to say, permanent Incumbents, the description being restricted, by Canon, to those who are "instituted" and who are, therefore, qualified for the receipt of the Equal Dividend or share of the Clergy Sustentation Fund.

In the case of Missions, the Classification under the Code of Canons of 1929 now is (a) Independent Missions, (b) Dependent Missions. Priests-in-charge of the former for a period of five years attain thereby "to the status and possess the canonical rights of instituted Clergy of the Diocese". Priests or Deacons officiating at Dependent Missions are licensed assistant curates of the Mother Church which originated the Mission.

When Priv. does not precede Chap., in the first column, the chapel has been publicly declared open to all comers.

No details of benefice incomes are shown. The minimum stipend of an incumbent of The Episcopal Church in Scotland has been fixed at £870 per annum and a residence is usually provided.

SUCCESSION OF ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS

In the following lists a date prefixed to the name of a bishop indicates the year of his appointment, or, if preceded by a dash, the date of the first known mention of him as bishop of the see or diocese. A number following a name indicates the date of voidance of the see, or, if followed by a dash, the date of the last known mention of the person named as bishop. The cause of voidance was usually death ; where it is known to have been resignation, translation, or deprivation, the fact is stated.

INDEX OF PARISHES

NOTE: No details of benefice incomes are shown. The basic stipend of an incumbent of the Church of Ireland has been fixed at not less than £750 per annum with a free residence and travelling expenses. An 'approved' stipend considerably in excess of this figure is in most cases determined by the Diocesan Council.

THE CHURCH IN CHINA

CHUNG HUA SHENG KUNG HUI

VICTORIA, HONG KONG (in Chinese 'KONG-O')

The Diocese of Hong Kong has recently by agreement with the other Dioceses of the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui (the Anglican Church in China) become 'a detached diocese', faithful in its faith, order and worship to the Constitution of the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui, but for the time being outside its jurisdiction. Since it is contrary to Anglican practice that a diocese should stand by itself in isolation and without a Metropolitan, the Diocesan Synod of Hong Kong has requested the Archbishop of Canterbury 'to supply the metropolitical functions prescribed by the Constitution and Canons of the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui, acting as Trustee for the same Constitution and Canons'.

OXFORD BIBLE ATLAS

edited by Herbert G. May with the assistance of R. W. Hamilton and G. N. S. Hunt

An entirely new Bible Atlas, in a format that is handy for shelf and desk, yet with maps of reasonably large scale. Some of the maps occupy two facing pages, and others are accompanied by explanatory texts. They are preceded by a full Introduction and followed by a chapter on Archaeology and the Bible; both of these are illustrated with photographs bearing on biblical geography and archaeology. There is also a comprehensive Gazetteer which is not only an index to the maps but contains in concise form much valuable information.

PRESIDING BISHOP

MOST REV. ARTHUR CARL LICHTENBERGER, D.D.

Office of the Presiding Bishop: The Church Missions House, 281, Park Avenue South, New York 10, N.Y.

Seventy-eight Dioceses and 12 Missionary Districts in United States territory, together with 13 Missionary Districts in foreign countries, each under its own Bishop, constitute this American branch of the Anglican Communion, whose Synod is:

GENERAL CONVENTION

which meets every three years (next meeting October 1964), and is composed of two Houses:

THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS:

Chairman, the Presiding Bishop.

Secretary, Rev. Alexander M. Rodger.

The present membership is 193 Bishops.

THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES:

President, Mr. Clifford P. Morehouse, LL.D.

Secretary, Canon Samuel N. Baxter.

The House of Deputies is composed of 4 Clerical and 4 Lay Deputies from each of 78 Dioceses, and 1 Clerical and 1 Lay Deputy from each of 25 Missionary Districts and from the American Churches in Europe, a total of 676 members.

The administration of the missionary, educational, and social work of the Church between sessions of the General Convention is carried on by consisting of 4 ex officio members, 16 members elected by the General Convention, 8 members elected by the Provincial Synods, and 4 members elected by the General Convention on nomination of the Triennial Meeting of the Women of the Church. The National Council meets four times each year.

President, the Presiding Bishop.

First Vice-President, the Rt. Rev. John Boyd Bentley, D.D.

Second Vice-President, Warren H. Turner, Jr.

Secretary, Canon Charles M. Guilbert, S.T.D.

Treasurer, Lindley M. Franklin, Jr.

Office of the National Council: 281 Park Avenue South, New York 10, N.Y.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Missionary work is an official project of the whole Church. It is under the direction of the General Convention and, between its triennial sessions, of the National Council. In 1820, General Convention established the above-named Society as the official missionary organization of the Church, its membership including every member of the Church. This was the administrative body until 1919, when General Convention created the National Council. On account of trust funds, &c., the Society continues as the legally incorporated body.

President, the Presiding Bishop.

First Vice-President, Rt. Rev. John Boyd Bentley, D.D.

Second Vice-President, Warren H. Turner, Jr.

Secretary, Canon Charles M. Guilbert, S.T.D.

Treasurer, Lindley M. Franklin, Jr.

God and the Rich Society

A Study of Christians in a World of Abundance

D. L. MUNBY

'This is a very important study indeed. . . . There are very few Christians in Britain who are both theologically informed and also professional economists. Mr. Munby is one of them, and he has much to teach us all on some of the most important aspects of our society. . . . All in all, God and the Rich Society is now required reading for any churchman who wishes to take an intelligent interest in the modern world. To have written it is a considerable achievement in Christian education.' (Frontier, Winter 1961) 25*s. net*

The Liturgy in English

edited by BERNARD WIGAN

The tercentenary of 1662 is an appropriate date for the publication of this collection of texts in which a whole liturgical tradition can be studied. It comprises the Anglican eucharistic rites of 1549, 1662 (including its Irish, Canadian, Indian and other recensions), of Scotland (1637 to the present), U.S.A., South Africa, and many other parts of the Anglican Communion, together with some important non-Anglican rites in English such as those of the Church of Scotland's Book of Common Order (1940) and of South India. No existing, or previous, volume has been so comprehensive or so well edited. 42*s. net*

Thomas Cranmer

JASPER RIDLEY

This comprehensive biography is an important re-examination of Cranmer's life and opinions, including his famous recantations and retraction; for his facts the author has gone to contemporary sources, and presents a considerable amount of new material which has surprisingly been ignored by all previous biographers. He not only throws new light on his subject but also tells a full and connected story. 35*s. net*

A Life of Archbishop Parker

V. J. K. BROOK

Matthew Parker did not devise the Elizabethan Settlement, entirely congenial as it was to his beliefs and temperament. But the task of putting it into effect fell to him as Archbishop of Canterbury, and the difficulties were enormous. Parker's kindliness, honesty, moderation, and wisdom contributed very considerably to the initial success of the Settlement and this new book is an appropriate tribute to his importance for the Church of England. 35*s. net*

THE COMPLETE CHURCH FURNISHERS

Royal Naval College, Greenwich

Sir Christopher Wren is probably the best known British Architect, certainly his work is part of the British heritage and is treated with reverence and respect. We were therefore particularly proud when the authorities of the Royal Naval College entrusted the work, part of which is illustrated above, to GEO. M. HAMMER & CO. LTD.

For over 100 years HAMMERS have been designing beautiful pieces of woodwork and furniture, which their craftsmen have shaped and reverently fitted in Churches all over the country.

COMPTON PIPE ORGANS

Compton Pipe Organs are famous for their impressive pipework, their perfect mechanisms and their beautiful construction. With the exception of the manual keyboards and the electric blower, every component is designed and made in the Compton Factories, which are the most completely equipped in the organ building industry. The ability of the enthusiastic Compton staff at all levels ensures the careful and punctual performance of every contract and the permanent satisfaction of the purchaser.

Compton's have completed more than 1,000 post-war contracts for new instruments and major rebuilds, apart from overhauls and minor work.

THE COMPTON ELECTRONE is the finest of its type in the world. Enquiries are welcomed; demonstrations arranged.

FACTS and FIGURES about the CHURCH OF ENGLAND

NEW AND ENLARGED EDITION

1962

IT will be found an indispensable book not only for bishops, archdeacons, and all central, diocesan, and parochial officials, but for all who are associated with evangelism and the application of the principles of Christian stewardship within the entire Church; and for those engaged in church administration in Anglican or inter-denominational organizations. It is also an indispensable reference book in government offices and libraries, and should be useful to many sociologists, journalists, and economists.

These speak for us

To us, a reputation that is 133 years old is more than something to talk about. It is a spur to still greater endeavour. If we are ever tempted to boast, it is of our craftsmen's skill, but when it comes to the instruments that bear our name, we are content that these are the voices that shall speak for us. As they do: from the Antipodes to the Caribbean.

Among the most recent voices are the organs in:

York Minster (photograph)
Rochester Cathedral
Holy Trinity Cathedral, Accra
Hobart Cathedral, Tasmania
St. John's Church, Launceston, Tasmania
Bingley Parish Church
Rugby School Chapel
St. Michael's Church, Headingley
St. James the Greater, Leicester
All Saints' Church, Sanderstead
St. Mark's Church, Launceston, Tasmania
Christ Church, Abington, Northampton
All Saints' Church, Goxhill
St. Cuthbert's Church of England, South Kogarah, Australia

Soon to add theirs will be the organs in:

Carlisle Cathedral
Whitworth Hall, Manchester University
